WINTHROP, MAINE – Right to Food for Maine is pleased to announce the endorsement by the Sportsman’s Alliance of Maine Institute for Legislative Action \(SAM-ILA\) for a Vote YES on Question 3, the Right to Food Constitutional Amendment.

“THE SAM-ILA has looked very closely at Question 3 to determine whether it would have an impact on the outdoor community,” wrote David Trahan, Executive Director of SAM, in a social media post on Wednesday. “After several weeks of research and discussing this Constitutional Amendment with attorneys, we feel our support is warranted.”

The post contains a detailed analysis of why this venerable Maine organization, the largest sportsman’s organization in the state, decided to add its voice to the growing chorus of individuals, organizations and institutions across the political spectrum and all parts of the state, rural and urban, are endorsing this ballot measure.

Other organizations endorsing YES on Question 3 include, but are not limited to:

Maine Legislature
Maine Organic Farmers and Gardeners Association
Sierra Club of Maine
Cumberland County Food Security Council
Slow Food Maine
Food for Maine’s Future
Local Food Rules
Maine Black Community Development
Renew Rockland
Maine Green Independent Party
Brooklin Food Corps
Midcoast Maine Permaculture
Halcyon Grange
National Family Farm Coalition
Protect Our Harvest
